Brief summary of sailing background

I competed in my carrier at national and regional (Balkans) level from Optimist up to Finn on most of all single-handed boats. In the last four year I was also involved in match racing and offshore event as competitor.
I graduated the sport faculty (sailing, 2005) and the Navigation and Naval Transports in Constanta Romania (2011), master's degree in sport activities (2007) and the PHD degree at the National Physical Education and Sport University, in București (2014).
I attended in 2016 the WS Scholarship for coaches in the UK.

Brief summary of professional background and business skills

I have been a Physical Education Teacher between 2005 and 2007 at a secondary school in Constanta, Romania.
After 2007 until today I was involved in teaching the students of Constanta Maritime University: sailing, physical education and maritime practice.
I was Vice President in 2017 and President from 2018 until 2024 of Romanian Yachting Federation. From October 2024 until now I am Vice-president of RYF.
I am Vice-president of EUROSAF and member of World Sailing Council.

I am good team working partner with ideas for improving each system where I have been involved.

EUROSAF Elections - Nomination Form

I will comply with the Constitution, Regulations, Code of Ethics, and the policies of EUROSAF, and I agree to be bound by the Code of Ethics in its current version (<https://euosaf.org/euosaf/governance>) even after the end of my time as a EUROSAF party.

I allow EUROSAF to store my personal data by electronic means.
